

JOYFUL RETURN

Relive Interview Questions & Recording Guidelines

The exhibition Joyful Return will include Relive, a pop-up sound installation using pre-recorded interviews shared by the museum community. You are invited to lend your voice to this project using the audio recording feature on your smartphone!

Audio Recording Instructions

1. If your phone or set up has any options, record the audio at the highest quality possible. The ideal recording set up is 48kHz sample rate, 24 bit depth, wav or aiff. If you cannot change the recording options, please just use the default setting on your recording device.
2. You can use any recording app on your phone.
3. Please record your answers in a quiet bedroom if possible (or any smaller room with lots of fluffy things to absorb sound away from street and outside noise).
4. Please have the phone or microphone set approximately one foot in front of your mouth while recording. Also, make sure there's nothing breaking the direct line of sight between you to the phone or microphone.
5. Please put the question in the answer. (e.g. Question: What is your favorite place in the museum? Answer: "My favorite place in the museum is the restaurant because their signature coffee roast is hands down my favorite coffee on the island.")
6. If there is a sound other than your voice (such as a passage of music) that you'd like to record as well, please record it in the following way:
  - » Record it in the same space with the same distance as previously mentioned.
  - » Wait until you finish recording your interview answers.
  - » Please say the name of what the item is, then wait a second or so, then record the sound a few times, in a few different ways. Have fun with it!
