Financial Statements

June 30, 2024 and 2023

Together with Independent Auditor's Report

A Hawaii Limited Liability Partnership

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Trustees of Honolulu Museum of Art:

We have audited the financial statements of Honolulu Museum of Art (the Museum), which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Museum as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Museum and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Museum's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are issued or available to be issued.

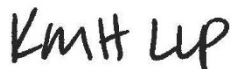

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Museum's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Museum's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

1. Summary of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

a. General

The Honolulu Museum of Art (the Museum) was founded in 1927 to provide educational and cultural enrichment in the arts. It is a private, nonprofit institution accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. The Museum's operations are conducted in the state of Hawaii. Effective May 19, 2020, the Museum's name changed from the Honolulu Academy of Arts, dba Honolulu Museum of Art to the Honolulu Museum of Art.

On July 1, 2011, subject to the restrictions and conditions of the gift agreement signed by The Contemporary Museum (TCM) and the Museum, TCM gifted artwork, real property, pledge receivables, cash, and investments, to the extent transferable, to the Museum. The Museum recorded approximately $25,491,000 as gifts and bequests related to the gift agreement based on restrictions stipulated by the donor.

b. Financial Statement Presentation

Net assets and revenues, gains, losses, and other support are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the Museum and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Net Assets without donor restrictions – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the Museum. These net assets may be used at the discretion of the Museum's management and the board of directors.

Net Assets with donor restrictions – Net assets subject to stipulations imposed by donors and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of the Museum or by the passage of time. Some donor restrictions are perpetual in nature and do not expire with the passage of time or by the actions of the Museum. Donors of these assets allow the Museum to use the income earned by these assets for programs or general purposes.

Donor restricted contributions are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets are reclassified from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restriction in the statements of activities.

1. Summary of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

c. Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Museum considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Included in investments are cash and cash equivalents designated by the Board to be held in investment accounts for routine purchases and sales of investments.

d. Inventories

Merchandise inventories consist of gift shop and cafe items and are recorded at the lower of cost (specific identification) or net realizable value.

e. Investments

Marketable securities are reported at fair value in the statements of financial position with unrealized gains and losses included in the statements of activities. Fair value is based on quoted market prices or other methods as further described in Note 13.

Gains and losses on investments are reported in the statements of activities as increases or decreases in net assets without donor restrictions unless their use is donor restricted by explicit donor stipulations or by law.

f. Land, Buildings, and Equipment

Land, buildings, and equipment are capitalized at cost, if purchased, or at fair market value at the date of the donation, if contributed. Depreciation on buildings and equipment is calculated on the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the assets.

The Museum reports gifts of land, buildings, and equipment as net assets without donor restrictions unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash or other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as net assets with donor restrictions. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long those long-lived assets must be maintained, the Museum reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed in service.

f. Land, Buildings, and Equipment (continued)

Land, buildings, and equipment are classified as held for sale when their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than continuing use and a sale is highly probable. Land, buildings, and equipment designated as held for sale are held at the lower of its carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell. No depreciation is charged on buildings and equipment classified as held for sale. During the year ended June 30, 2023, the Museum sold property held for sale and recognized a gain of approximately $1,013,000.

g. Revenue Recognition

The Museum accounts for its revenues in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, and recognizes revenue as performance obligations are satisfied. Performance obligations are satisfied when goods or services are transferred to the customer. The Museum's principal activities resulting in contracts with customers include Museum shop and café sales, membership dues, admissions and special events.

Museum shop and café sales – Performance obligations are satisfied at the point in time when the sale occurs. The transaction price is the stated retail price unless the customer is a member and a discount is provided. Discounts are not considered significant.

Membership dues – Membership dues are based on fixed rate schedules at the beginning of the membership year and are nonrefundable. Membership dues are collected at the time of purchase. Membership dues are considered exchange transactions as members are entitled to certain benefits during the membership period, which is generally 12 months. Revenue is recognized upon receipt as there is no significant variance from recognizing revenue on a pro rata basis over the membership period. Certain memberships also contain a contribution element which represents the membership dues in excess of the benefits provided. The contribution portion is recorded upon receipt.

Admissions – Revenue is recognized on the date of visit. Admissions fees are based on published rates and are nonrefundable. Admission fees are collected at time of purchase.

g. Revenue Recognition (continued)

Special events – Revenue equal to the fair value of direct benefits to donors, and contribution income for the amount in excess of the direct benefits, is recorded when the event occurs.

The revenue streams noted above do not include financing components as performance obligations are satisfied within one year of receipt of payment.

h. Contributions

Contributions are recorded in the period received. Unconditional promises to give (contributions receivable) that are expected to be collected within one year are recorded at net realizable value. Contributions receivable that are expected to be collected in future years are recorded at the present value of their estimated future cash flows. The discounts on those amounts are computed using fair value rates in the years in which promises are received. Amortization of the discounts is included in gifts and bequests in the accompanying statements of activities. Conditional contributions are recorded at their estimated fair value in the period the conditions are substantially met or when explicitly waived by the donor.

The Museum provides an allowance for uncollectible contributions based upon historical experience with its donors as well as individual donor circumstances.

The Museum reports gifts of cash and other assets as support with donor restrictions if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the accompanying statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Grant income is recognized when project expenses are incurred. Any funding received in advance of expenditures is reported as other liabilities in the accompanying statements of financial position.

i. Deferred Revenue

Deferred revenue represents table and ticket sales collected for future events, gift memberships, and exhibition fees received as deposits for traveling exhibitions organized by the Museum and displayed subsequent to year-end.

1. Summary of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

j. Split Interest Agreements

The Museum's split-interest agreements with donors consist of irrevocable pooled income funds, charitable remainder trusts, and charitable gift annuities for which the Museum serves as trustee. Assets held under these split-interest agreements are included in investments and amounted to $1,967,960 and $1,952,278 at June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Contribution revenues are recognized upon the effective date of the split-interest agreements as gifts and bequests in the accompanying statements of activities. For the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, there was no contribution revenue recognized under such agreements.

Liabilities are recorded for the present value (utilizing discount rates ranging between 5.60% and 7.50%) of the estimated future payments to be made to the donors and/or other beneficiaries. The liabilities are subsequently adjusted during the term of the split-interest agreements for accretion of the discount and other changes in the estimates of future benefits. Annual payments for each agreement range from approximately $1,600 to $80,000.

For the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, decreases in the value of liabilities under split-interest agreements related to pooled income funds, charitable remainder trusts, and charitable gift annuities amounted to $63,062 and $68,075, respectively, and are included in change in value of split-interest agreements in the accompanying statements of activities.

k. Beneficial Interest in Perpetual Trusts

The Museum receives contributions of interests in irrevocable perpetual trusts of which third-party entities serve as trustee. Initial recognition and subsequent adjustments to the Museum's beneficial interest in the trust assets' carrying values are recognized as gifts and bequests revenue and changes in value of beneficial interest in perpetual trusts, respectively, and are classified as net assets with donor restrictions, as the trusts are to be invested in perpetuity by the trustee. The Museum's beneficial interest in perpetual trusts are measured at fair value based on the Museum's interest in the underlying fair value of the trust assets.

k. Beneficial Interest in Perpetual Trusts (continued)

For the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, income generated from the Museum's interests in beneficial interest in perpetual trusts amounted to $1,206,661 and $1,309,338, respectively, and are recorded as income from trusts in the accompanying statements of activities. For the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, the increase in the value of beneficial interests in perpetual trusts amounted to $1,938,961 and $1,312,327, respectively, and are recorded as change in value of beneficial interest in perpetual trusts in the accompanying statements of activities. There were no new beneficial interests in perpetual trusts received in 2024 and 2023.

l. Art Collection

The Museum's art collection comprises works of art, which are held for exhibition, research, and educational purposes. Each of the items is cataloged, preserved, and cared for, and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed continuously. The collections are subject to a policy that requires proceeds from their sales and deaccessions to be used to acquire other items for the collection.

Works of art in the Museum's collection are not recognized as assets in the statements of financial position. Purchases of art are recorded as decreases in net assets without donor restrictions in the year in which the items are acquired.

m. Income Taxes

The Museum is exempt from income taxes under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and the Hawaii Revised Statutes. The Museum is also exempt from Hawaii general excise tax on gross receipts directly related to its mission. However, the Museum is subject to income and Hawaii general excise taxes on any net income or gross receipts that are derived from a trade or business, regularly carried on, and not in furtherance of the purposes for which it was granted exemption. No income tax provision has been recorded as the net income, if any, from any unrelated trade or business, in the opinion of management, is not material to the financial statements taken as a whole.

m. Income Taxes (continued)

The Museum recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if it is more-likely-than-not that the tax position will be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax effects recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest amount that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Changes in recognition or measurement are reflected in the period in which the change in judgment occurs. Any interest or penalties related to any unrecognized tax benefit/liability are classified as management and general expenses.

The Museum has evaluated its tax positions and determined that there were no uncertain tax positions at June 30, 2024 and 2023. Accordingly, there are no interest or penalties recognized during the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023. Tax years from 2021 are open for federal income tax examination.

n. Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets, such as property, plant, and equipment, and purchased intangibles subject to amortization are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If circumstances require a long-lived asset be tested for possible impairment, the Museum first compares undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated by an asset to the carrying value of the asset. If the carrying value of the long-lived asset is not recoverable on an undiscounted cash flow basis, an impairment is recognized to the extent that the carrying value exceeds its fair value. Fair value is determined through various valuation techniques, including discounted cash flow models, quoted market values, and third-party independent appraisals, as considered necessary.

o. Fair Value Measurements

The Museum applies the provisions of ASC Topic 820 to financial assets and liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring basis. The Museum's alternative investments consist of hedge funds, opportunistic and other funds of funds, and have been measured at fair value using the net asset value per share (or its equivalent) as a practical expedient in accordance with ASC Topic 820-10. ASC Topic 820-10 allows for the exclusion of the Museum's alternative investments from classification in the fair value hierarchy.

1. Summary of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

p. Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Museum to credit risk consist primarily of cash, cash equivalents, and investments.

The Museum maintains its cash and cash equivalents in financial institutions, which at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The funds are insured up to $250,000 per account holder by certain federal agencies. At June 30, 2024, the Museum had funds of approximately $1,678,000 in excess of federally insured limits. Management believes that the Museum is not exposed to any significant credit risk related to cash, cash equivalents, and investments.

q. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant items subject to such estimates and assumptions include the valuation of contributions receivables, long-term investments, beneficial interest in perpetual trusts, and liabilities under split-interest agreements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

r. Functional Expenses

The financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributable to one or more programs or supporting functions of the Museum. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefitted based on direct costs incurred and management's estimates of resources consumed by these functions.

1. Summary of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

s. Recent Accounting Standards

In June 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses: Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments. The guidance in this ASU established a requirement to measure credit losses at the inception of a financial instrument based on the net amount management expects to collect. The measurement of all expected credit losses is based on historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. The Museum adopted the guidance on July 1, 2023. The adoption of this guidance did not have a significant impact on the financial statements. There were no credit losses recorded for the year ended June 30, 2024.

2. Contributions Receivable

The amount of contributions receivable at June 30, 2024 and 2023 are as follows:

	2024	2023
Receivable in less than one year	$ 119,573	$ 100,600
Receivable in one to five years	300,000	400,000
Total receivable	$ 419,573	$ 500,600

Contributions receivable totaling $419,573 and $500,600 included in assets at June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, are measured on a nonrecurring basis using a discounted cash flow approach with estimates of future cash flows.

3. Contributed Rent

The Museum leases land and a building for its Art School from the state of Hawaii. Effective December 1, 2016, the Museum entered into a lease agreement with the state of Hawaii for a term of 65 years, through November 30, 2081. For the 10-year period beginning December 1, 2016, the lease is payable in annual installments of $480. The annual rent will be reopened and re-determined at the tenth (2026), twentieth (2036), thirtieth (2046), fortieth (2056), fiftieth (2066) and sixtieth (2076) years of the lease.

Honolulu Museum of Art

Notes to Financial Statements

3. Contributed Rent (continued)

Contributed rent represents the net present value of the difference between the fair rental value of the property and the stated amount of the lease payments, which does not exceed the fair value of the real property at the lease commencement date. The contributed rent is considered a net asset with donor restrictions and will be released to net assets without donor restrictions over the lease term.

At June 30, 2024 and 2023, contributed rent amounted to $333,581 and $477,253, respectively, and the related amortization for the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023 amounted to $143,672 and $147,196, respectively. At the inception of the lease, the estimated fair value was computed by discounting the difference between the fair value of rent over the amount of rent to be paid over a 10-year period using a risk-free rate as of December 1, 2016 (lease date) of 2.45%.

4. Land, Buildings, and Equipment

A summary of land, buildings, and equipment at June 30, 2024 and 2023 is as follows:

The cost of art objects purchased was $100,000 and $90,042 for the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and is reported in the accompanying statements of activities.

Gifts of cash or other property restricted by donors for the purchase of art and artifacts for the collection or proceeds from deaccessions are recognized as income in net assets with donor restrictions and are only available to purchase art and artifacts for the Museum's collection. a. Interpretations of Relevant Law

The Board of the Museum (Board) has interpreted Hawaii's Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (HUPMIFA), which was enacted by the state of Hawaii on July 1, 2009, as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Museum classifies as donor restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. Unless otherwise stated in the gift instrument, the remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in restricted in perpetuity is classified as donor restricted net assets until those amounts are expended by the Museum in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by HUPMIFA. In accordance with HUPMIFA, the Museum considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- (1) The duration and preservation of the fund
- (2) The purposes of the Museum and the donor-restricted endowment fund
- (3) General economic conditions
- (4) The possible effect of inflation and deflation

10. Endowments (continued)

b. Funds with Deficiencies

From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or HUPMIFA requires the Museum to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. The Museum considers prudence in maintaining an endowment fund in perpetuity, so while spending may occur from an endowment fund whose fair value is below its historic value, the Museum has determined that its policies will continue the perpetual nature of the endowment over time. Deficiencies of this nature that are reported in net assets with donor restrictions were $13,417,843 and $16,500,189 as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. These funds had an original gift value of $65,481,109 and $72,360,859 and a fair value of $52,063,266 and $55,860,670 as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. These deficiencies resulted from unfavorable market fluctuations that occurred due to the investment of contributions restricted in perpetuity and continued appropriation for certain programs that was deemed prudent by the Board.

c. Return Objectives and Risks Parameters

The Museum has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the Museum must hold in perpetuity or for donor-specified periods. Under this policy, as approved by the Board, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce results that exceed certain published indexes while assuming a moderate level of investment risk.

d. Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Museum relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Museum targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

e. Spending Policy

The Museum's spending policy is to distribute 5% annually from the total endowment fund as calculated by a trailing 12-quarter moving average of the total fund as determined on June 30 of the fiscal year under consideration. Over the long term, the Museum expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment to be a balance between preserving the real (after inflation) purchasing power of the endowment principal with the need to fund program-related expenses.

11. Liquidity and Availability

Financial assets available for general expenditures, that is, without donor or other restrictions limiting their use, within one year of the balance sheet date, are comprised of the following:

	2024	2023
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 124,311	$ 2,186,224
Contributions receivable	119,573	100,600
Operating investments	1,652,946	1,941,893
	$ 1,896,830	$ 4,228,717

The Museum's endowment funds consist of donor restricted endowments and funds designated by the board as endowments (quasi-endowment). Income from donor-restricted endowments are restricted for specific purposes, with the exception of the amounts available for general use. Donor-restricted endowment funds and the Museum's quasi-endowment are subject to an annual spending rate of 5% (as described in Note 11).

As part of the Museum's liquidity management, financial assets are made available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due. The Museum also deposits cash in excess of daily requirements into a Maximizer account and has a line of credit in the amount of $500,000, which it could draw upon. Effective July 1, 2024, the Museum also has a secured margin line of credit in the amount of $2,800,000.

11. Liquidity and Availability (continued)

Additionally, the Museum's quasi-endowment is valued at $833,554 and $769,227 as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Although the Museum does not intend to spend from the quasi-endowment (other than amounts appropriated for general expenditure as part of the Museum's Board's annual budget approval and appropriation), these amounts could be made available if necessary. However, both the quasi-endowment and donor-restricted endowments contain investments with restrictions on sales (as described in Note 13).

12. Fair Value Measurements

a. Fair Value Hierarchy

ASC Topic 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to measurements involving significant unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Museum has the ability to access at the measurement date.
- Level 2 inputs are other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The level in the fair value hierarchy within which a fair value measurement in its entirety falls is based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety at the measurement date.

b. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair value of financial instruments represents management's best estimates of the amounts that would be received to sell those assets or that would be paid to transfer those liabilities in an orderly transaction between market participants at that date. Those fair value measurements maximize the use of observable inputs. However, in situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the asset or liability at the measurement date, the fair value measurement reflects management's own judgments about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. Those judgments are developed by management based on the best information available in the circumstances.

12. Fair Value Measurements (continued)

The fair value of investments in marketable securities is based primarily on quoted market prices. The fair value of other investments that do not have readily determinable fair values is generally based on quoted market prices of the underlying investments and information provided by the respective external investment managers at the most recent valuation date and adjusted for cash flows from the valuation date to fiscal year-end, if applicable. Beneficial interest in perpetual trusts are recorded at fair value based on the underlying interest of the fair value of the trust assets. The beneficial interest in perpetual trusts are considered Level 3 as the securities are neither in the possession nor under the control of the Museum. As described in Note 1.o., the Museum utilized the NAV per share for certain investments in alternative structures as a practical expedient for the estimation of the fair value of these investments.

The carrying amount of liabilities under split-interest agreements approximates fair value as discount rates used are generally commensurate with current published risk-free rates.
